GOMPERS OPPOSES APPROPRIATION

THINKS McNAMARA SHOULD BE AIDED BY PRIVATE SUBSCRIPTIONS.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 16.—The fact that efforts have been made by President Gompers to suppress the resolution to appropriate $500,000 to the McNamara defense fund, came out today on the floor of the convention of the American Federation of Labor.

Shortly before adjournment for the day, Delegate A. C. Gallagher of the California delegation inquired of the president whether a resolution could be presented after today. He explained that he had a very important resolution bearing on the McNamara case which he said would cause some friction if brought before the convention and that he had been asked to withhold it pending the result upon the convention of the president's report which would deal with that case. Mr. Gompers replied that no resolution could be offered after midnight tonight. Mr. Gallagher then asked if the convention could not vote to permit him to introduce the resolution later in the event the committee report on the subject was not satisfactory to him.

"It cannot," retorted Mr. Gompers. Mr. Gallagher said he would ask the convention to bear in mind the fact that he had withheld the resolution by request, if he attempted to offer it later. Another delegate asked the chair if a delegate could not move to substitute a resolution for a portion of a committee report. Mr. Gompers replied in the affirmative.

It is generally understood that Mr. Gompers is not opposed to rendering all the aid possible to the McNamara brothers but he thinks all funds required should be raised by private subscriptions.

WHEN OFFICER MAY USE GUN

Oklahoma City, Nov. 17.—"Officers should know and understand that they have no authority to resort to the use of fire-arms or dangerous weapons in making arrests for other offenses than felonies, unless the offender resists the arresting officer. In that event, all force necessary to overcome resistance may be employed."

With the above announcement of the law, Judge Thomas H. Doyle of the criminal court of appeals, denied the appeal of John W. Sharpe, convicted in Adair county of manslaughter and sentenced to ten years in the penitentiary. The case has had an eventful history and is one of the most famous in the history of the Oklahoma courts.

On November 28, 1906, Sharpe, who was a peace officer at Tahlequah, shot and killed William Powell, a 16-year old schoolboy, who was running from him after a short conversation between them. It was not claimed that Powell had violated any law, but that he had made the remark that he was "a very poor policeman." Powell then ran and Sharpe shot at him twice, hitting him the second time.

TIME OF PAYMENTS MAY BE EXTENDED

Ardmore, Okla., Nov. 17.—Congressman Charles D. Carter, who has been urging the government to extend the payments on unallotted Indian lands, received a telegram from the secretary of the interior Thursday stating that J. George Wright, Indian agent, had been authorized to grant extensions of payments in specific cases where the necessity for such extensions could be established. The action of the government will be a great blessing to the farmers, who have suffered from short crops this year, and will enable them to pay out their homes.

Kentucky Feudists in New Role. Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 17.—Curtis Jett and Henry Youtsey, whose names figured extensively in the famous Goebe trials and feud according to news received from the mountains, are each seeking elections as delegates to the Christian Endeavor Society. The contest is very hot, Youtsey represents the "Standpatters," while Jett represents the "Progressives." Youtsey was elected last year and Jett contested the validity of his opponent's election.

DEMOCRATS PLAN TO RAISE CAMPAIGN FUNDS

Oklahoma City, Ok., Nov. 16.—Meeting of the finance committee of the State Democratic Central Committee was held here under call of Chairman Boone Williams of Lehigh and plans were laid for gathering funds for the next campaign. These plans will be left to the state central committeeman and the county chairman to carry out. Each county will be expected to contribute a stipulated sum monthly and persons holding positions with the state government are also expected to contribute.

State Chairman Branson, who was here today, said that he did not believe Gov. Cruce would call the legislature in special session and gave it as his opinion that the state convention meeting here in February to select delegates to the national convention would take no adverse action upon the governor's refusal.

The Commercial hotel is now under the management of Chas. H. Phelps, late of Oklahoma City. He is an experienced hotel man, and is planning to thoroughly remodel and overhaul the Commercial, keeping it right up to the standard of a first class hotel.

Beauty as a Privilege

Shakespeare said that beauty is but skin deep.

Of course William knew better.

But the fact remains that both beauty of body and mind manifest themselves through the skin.

Health reveals itself in the complexion. That semi-transparent quality of skin which tells of the ruddy flow of life is within the reach of every woman.

She whose face is a blotch of Gamboge, dashed with burnt umber, will be wooed and wed by Nobody.

The moral is plain: Use Rexall Disappearing Cream, Rexall Liquid Green Soap and Rexall Cream of Almonds.

You can't afford to experiment with your face.

Let us tell you about our line of elegant Toilet Articles, Violet Dulce Face Powder, Violet Dulce Toilet Water, Violet Dulce Talcum (fresh and white) and others.

CAMP LIFE IN THE KIAMICHIS

Only the wise can enjoy the luxuries of life. The wise are they who retain a youthful zest for enjoying and who are willing to venture out of the ruts of business and domesticity to meet nature and commune with nature's God in mountain wilds under forest trees and along fresh running streams. From carriage and from car window I have viewed happy campers with longing eyes so when Man planned a wagon trip for us I entered into the scheme most heartily. Every thing was planned to eliminate bother and to dispense with a hired cook. The blacksmith placed a complete kitchen cabinet in the back end of the wagon with a door that opened out on a hinged leg and formed a three foot square table; in this cabinet or chuck box was placed a week's supply of food all cooking and table utensils. Between the "chuck box" and spring seat were placed extension sides to the wagon and on it rests the best of bed springs and mattress with clean blankets, soft quilts and feather pillows. This bed is as comfortable as a Pullman sleeper and much wider, also is furnished with plenty of fresh air and under this same bed is packed a plentiful supply of food stuffs, ammunition, horse feed, etc., for a three weeks hunt, also two shot guns and two rifles.

Each member of the party has a "warbag" for his duds—that is a striped ticking laundry bag which may be tossed around like a sack, yet keeps the articles inside it clean and together. There is a tool box under the dash board and three handy boxes one on the left side of spring seat and one at either side of the chuck box. The boy helps me cook and fetches wood and water. Man cares for the gray mares and pets and humors them till they think he came along just to care for them. We have arrived at the second Boggy Creek just three miles from Stringtown and camped for the third night out. I would call this the Gate to the Mountains for the first mountain rises just across the creek and the end of it is sliced off to the level of the iron bridge to make a pass on into the mountains.

Thou canst say to the mountain, "Be thou removed" if you have plenty of dynamite. The faith must be in the heart first, however, for until the "I can" and I will is conceived by the mind no difficulties are overcome.

There will be many hunters in these mountains after the 15th of this month and most of them come to bag all the game their prowess and the game laws will allow.

Man hopes to kill some squirrels perhaps a turkey and possibly a buck and to catch a few bass. The boy will follow daddy closely and likely I will too. I come not to kill but to enjoy. Paraphrasing Goldsmith
"No beasts that range the valley free,
To slaughter I condemn
The hunters kill the beasts for me,
I cook the meat for them."

Also eat some of it.
Next letter I will tell you of a Sunday in camp. I have a hunter's costume consisting of a short narrow skirt, jacket and mannish leggings and hat I can walk and run like a girl. Never again will I condemn the short narrow skirt even though the lady wears number seven shoes, but I still insist that white shoes and toe slippers are in bad taste also unhygienic on the street in bad weather.

POLITICAL GOSSIP FROM WASHINGTON

By Clyde H. Tavenner.

Washington, Nov. 14.—"As Massachusetts goes, so will the nation go in 1912!"

This was the slogan of both republicans and democrats in the Massachusetts campaign. And the democratic candidate, Gov. Foss, won handily.

The issue was the tariff and Taft's stand, the same issues that will predominate in the 1912 campaign. Query: If the protectionists cannot carry Massachusetts, home of the cotton and woolen manufacturing industries, where the people are supposed to reap some of the tremendous advantages of protection, how can they expect to carry the middle and western states, in which regions live the people who pay the excessive prices caused by high tariff and reap none of the alleged benefits of protection?

Why Mr. Taft Feels Shaky.

Here is an article which speaks for itself. It is taken from the Dakota Democrat, published at Aberdeen, S. D., and is a fair sample of what the newspapers in the cities visited by Mr. Taft on his trip through the west published after he had left town. Incidentally, this article in a measure reveals the sentiment which prompted Mr. Taft to make his now famous prediction of Republican defeat in 1912:

"The big event—Taft day at Aberdeen—has come and gone. Curiosity to see the president caused thousands to come to Aberdeen, stand in line and even give vent to a few feeble cheers when he spoke, but they were not with him at any stage in the game. Poor Taft! Big-hearted, jovial and companionable, a commoner in his bearing. Everybody instinctively admires him for the personal charm of his manner. It is too bad that such a good man should be spoiled in trying to make presidential timber of him. We love him for his large personality, but in view of what he has done we cannot vote for him again."

The President Voted!

The president got to vote after all. A lot of red tape was necessary, but he voted. And thereby hangs a tale.

Six years ago Mr. Taft made a speech at Akron, O., in which he roundly scored the notorious Cox machine in Cincinnati. He said he could take great pleasure in voting against it. He declared this foul republican machine was a stench in the nostrils of all good citizens. The people of Ohio, realizing that William H. Taft was telling the truth, applauded him vigorously and with the utmost sincerity.

In the recent election Mr. Taft publicly indorsed and voted for the Cox machine, which is still the disgraceful alliance of politics, corrupt business and the brothels that it was in 1905. But the president was there with an excuse. He said that "conditions had substantially changed."

Whatever the president was alluding to, it was not the Cox machine, for it had remained as foul as ever. The only change visible to observers is that, whereas six years ago Mr. Taft was not a candidate for office, he is today.

South May Desert Taft.

The prediction is made at the LaFollette headquarters in Washington that the administration will find it impossible to send a solid Taft delegation from the South to the next convention.

"For many weeks," says a statement given out at the LaFollette headquarters, "there has been signs that the Southern Republicans have been fearful that the nomination of President Taft will be a serious menace to their continued receipt of bi-monthly checks from the United States treasury. The South is affording the Progressive Campaign Committee more encouragement than any other section of the country."

War-Time Prices Outdistanced.

It is no longer necessary to hark back to war times as an era of exceptionally high prices. A Washington antiquarian has been at the trouble to dig up a list of war-time prices and compare them with Payne-Aldrich tariff prices at the present time, as follows:

War Time	Article	Pres. Time
$4.10	Bbl. Flour	$7.75
1 1/2 lb.	Hams	20c@25c
8c@12c	Lard	12c@15c
14c	Cheese	25c@35c
10c@18c	Sugar	5c@8c
6 1/2 lb.	Beef	15c
5c lb.	Shoulders	20c
13c@16c lb.	Coffee	20c@40c

Works Both Ways.

President Taft was made angry because Congressman Littleton of New York spoke in condemnation of the Sherman law at the same banquet board at which he was to speak in its defense. If the President had himself protected the dignity of his office by refraining from talking politics on his trip through the west, his displeasure at Mr. Littleton's action might have been in better taste. But he had just traveled 15,270 miles, been seen by nearly five million people, and made 306 speeches to an aggregate audience of approximately 1,555,000 people. Apparently the president desires that only his side of public questions should be heard. If the president chooses to go upon the stump, he must not expect that he can do all the talking himself. The consensus of opinion is that if the dignity of the office of president was not injured by Mr. Taft in making a political speech while a guest at a banquet, it was not injured by Mr. Littleton in stating his views on the same subject discussed by the president.

"Wholehoggers."

In Germany the tariff wall is even higher than in the United States. There, as in this country, the people are crying out at the ever-increasing cost of living. But in Germany they have another name for the standpaters who resist any attempt to reduce the cost of living. They call them wholehoggers.

THE O. E. A.

The executive committee of the Oklahoma Education Association met in Oklahoma City a few days ago and outlined the general plan of the meeting. The members of the Committee are: Thos. W. Butcher, Enid, President; W. T. Dodson, Durant, vice president; M. L. Perkins, Ada, chairman executive committee; W. W. Cunningham, Shawnee, secretary-treasurer; L. E. Christian, McAlester, A. J. Lovett, Blackwell. The annual meeting will be held in Oklahoma City on December 27-29. Two years ago the meeting was held at the same place on the above date and was the largest meeting the association has ever had. This year's meeting promises to break all records for educational meetings in the entire Southwest. The committee has secured some of the best talent to be had in the United States and will give the teachers of the state an educational treat of high character. Superintendent Brandenburg of Oklahoma City attended the meeting of the Committee and assured the members of the co-operation of the school board and the commercial club of that city. The general sessions of the meeting will be held in Convention Hall. The new high school building and the churches of the city will be thrown open for departmental sessions. A rate of a fare and a third for the round trip has been secured on all railroads throughout the state.

OKLAHOMA NEGROES LEAVE FOR AFRICA

Muskogee, Okla., Nov. 11.—The exodus of negroes from eastern Oklahoma to Liberia has actually begun. Friday ten negro men, all of them heads of families, with their children and baggage left in a party for Monrovia, Liberia. Aside from whatever other possessions they carried with them each head of a family had $100 in cash, which is set aside, as the British authorities require that amount before the negroes are allowed to clear from Liverpool for the promised land. They all expect to farm in Liberia.

This movement is the result of much missionary work among the negroes of Muskogee county. Andrew Lee is at the head of the expedition. If this party is successful, and the members find conditions satisfactory, there are 100 more heads of families who have bound themselves to join the American colony of negroes in Liberia, and in addition to these there are 200 more in the organization who claim they are ready to quit the United States for a negro state of their own. Curtailment of political power is one of the principal factors in the negroes' decision to leave Oklahoma.

Weekly Market Letter.

Oklahoma City, Okla., Nov. 14.—Cattle receipts yesterday, 950 head, with a good strong snappy market. Receipts today, 1500 head, and the market steady on all classes. They are calling the northern markets lower today, but the active demand here for more stuff is holding the market up. This is certainly the high market at the present time. We are quoting our market as follows:

Fed steers	5.50@6.50
Cake and grass steers	4.50@5.25
Grass steers	3.75@5.00
Good cows and heifers	4.00@4.75
Medium cows and heifers	3.25@3.75
Canners and cutters	2.50@3.00
Bulls	3.00@3.75
Calves	3.50@6.50
Stockers and feeders	3.75@4.40

Hogs are quoted 5 to 10 lower at all markets today. The Armstrong Packing company of Dallas, Tex., was in the field again this morning and took the choice finished load at 6.40. The bulk of the best butcher hogs sold from 6.10 to 6.25, while some few loads were good enough to bring 6.27 to 6.35, but must be well finished to bring these prices. The mixed medium kind are selling from 5.75 to 6.05 with the light plain kind at 5.00 to 5.50, and pigs 3.50 to 4.25.

EVANS-SNIDER-BUEL CO.

CHOCTAWS FAVOR SALE OF LANDS

McAlester, Okla., Nov. 15.—A mass-meeting of Choctaws, held here Wednesday, was attended by nearly three hundred representative members of the tribe. The meeting had been called by a number of influential men in favor of having tribal affairs wound up, and efforts will be made to induce congress to do something at the coming session.

The movement was opposed by Governor Dick Locke and other officials in the tribal government, but the governor did not attend the meeting. It was soon discovered that the sentiment of those present was largely with the men calling the meeting.

The meeting lasted all day, and late this evening the resolutions reported by the committee were adopted as reported with the exception of the section providing for the abolishment of tribal government. This was so amended as to do away with all the officials but the principal chief his duties to be limited to the signing of deeds and his salary reduced from $5,400 to $600 per annum.

The resolutions favor the sale of the surface of the segregated lands, the sale of remaining unallotted lands, in tracts to suit the purchaser, the abolishment of the Indian schools and the sale of the school and other public buildings, the sale of the coal as soon as market conditions justify it and the payment per capita of all money due the tribe not later than January 1, 1913.

Representative W. F. Semple of Caddo was elected permanent chairman. W. H. Durant, former speaker of the lower house of the Choctaw council, was the active spirit in the meeting.

A central committee was named to have its headquarters at McAlester and appoint men in every county to circulate petitions in an effort to induce 90 per cent of the members of the tribe to indorse the action of Wednesday's mass-meeting, and another committee was appointed to present the resolutions to the representatives in congress from this side of the state.

A telegram was sent President Taft tonight protesting against the action of the council in appropriating $50,000 for a sanitarium and $15,000 to pay the expenses of delegates to Washington, and against the contract signed by Governor Locke appointing J. P. J. Hurley as attorney for the tribe for the reason that he was trying to reopen the rolls.

BEATTIE WILL KNOW

HIS FATE TODAY

Richmond, Va., Nov. 14.—After a brief conference today with counsel for Henry Clay Beattie Jr., under sentence of death for wife murder, Gov. Mann announced that his decision in the matter would be made public early tomorrow. While the governor declined tonight to indicate what action he would take, a careful review of today's events indicated that there would be no commutation of sentence and very slim chances of a respite.

Beattie is sentenced to die in the electric chair Nov. 24.

What purported to be an affidavit signed by Paul Beattie, cousin of the convicted man, and the witness on whose evidence the jury largely based its verdict of guilty, figured in the effort to save the prisoner today. Although this affidavit sworn to before Walter C. Balerston, a notary public of Washington, D. C., on Oct. 24, was shown to Gov. Mann, it was not filed with him and apparently had little effect on the future course of the executive.

In this affidavit, which Paul Beattie repudiates, he is alleged to have said that Henry Beattie made no confession to him subsequent to the murder. When newspaper reference was made on Saturday last to the existence of an alleged affidavit, Paul Beattie went to police headquarters and made sworn affidavit that he signed no paper while in Washington.

The fact that Gov. Mann did not ask that these papers be left with him was accepted as meaning that he had already made up his mind.

Heavy Sales of Unallotted Lands.

During two days in Chickasha, "Uncle Sam," the hustling real estate agent who represents the Chickasaw and Choctaw Indians, sold Grady county land to the amount of $163,000.

Friday's sale of unallotted land was a record breaker, reaching a total of $108,000. Out of 301 tracts offered yesterday 146 were sold. In all during the two days 583 tracts were offered and 267 or 46 per cent of the offerings were taken.

Prices throughout the sale ranged above the appraised value and in some instances double the minimum value was paid.

Democratic Prospects for 1912.

Counting Arizona and New Mexico there will be 531 votes in the electoral college which will elect the president of the United States in 1912. According to the usual method of figuring, it is safe to count as surely democratic the following states: Alabama 12, Arkansas 9, Florida 6, Georgia 14, Kentucky 13, Louisiana 10, Maryland 8, Mississippi 10, Missouri 18, North Carolina 12, Oklahoma 10, South Carolina 9, Tennessee 12, Texas 20, Virginia 12, Total 175.

States that have strong democratic leaning and may be reasonably depended on are: Colorado 6, Arizona 3, New Mexico 3, total 12. This gives a total democratic strength of 187, leaving 79 to be obtained from the doubtful states.

Leaving out all other states that went democratic in 1910 we find three states which will give the democratic candidates the necessary votes. They are New York 45, Ohio 24, Indiana 15, Total 84. Grand total 271.

Under the new apportionment it will require 266 electoral votes to elect so these figures show a safe majority.

Suppose on the other hand, the democratic party should decide to make its fight for the west. It would be necessary to carry Wisconsin 13, Iowa 13, Kansas 10, Nebraska 8, California 13, Montana 4, North Dakota 5, South Dakota 5, Oregon 5, Wyoming 3, total 79.

With the exception of South Dakota all these have republican governors, and the democrats do not control the congressional delegation in a single state.—From the Centralia (Ill.) Democrat.

SULPHUR GOING AFTER

INTERURBAN LINE

Sulphur, Okla., Nov. 16.—The people of Sulphur have taken the Supreme court decision of Murray county's court house in good grace after making movements toward extending their efforts in building up this city and the county at large. Time and money from now on will be spent in boosting the good roads movement and interurban extensions from Dallas and Denison on the south and from Shawnee and Oklahoma City on the north. The citizens held a mass meeting for the purpose of raising a $40,000 bonus asked by the Rapid Transit Company proposing to build south from Tecumseh, there by giving this city and Oklahoma City connections. The president of the Rapid Transit Company while in the city assured the citizens that work upon this proposed line will commence in the very near future and will be rushed to completion. The people of Sulphur are enthusiastic over the proposition and from now on every effort will be extended to promoters of the Rapid Transit facilities, to ebaufity, to supply amusement for visitors and to make this city what it has always been termed, the pleasure ground of the Southwest.

No use for a man to become discouraged and want to move because of a short crop or two. By the very law of probabilities itself, if a locality has enjoyed two or three good crops the next one is likely to be short, whereas, the region of short crops will likely be the place where a good one will be raised next season. We have known men in comfortable circumstances to waste everything they possessed by running from bad crops, always managing to get out of the country just before a good crop was made, and into a new location in time to be met with a failure. In any country it is the man who hangs on and fights it out who finally makes a winning.

By his refusal to interfere in the Beattie case, Gov. Blann of Virginia proves that he is in no way related to Cruce and McAlester of Oklahoma. If the murder for which Beattie is to die had been committed in Oklahoma, Gov. Cruce would have commuted his sentence to the pen, and McAlester would have come along and invited him to walk out.

The Mangum Star has suspended the publication of its daily edition. Although the Star was one of the brightest little sheets in Oklahoma, two years of struggle proved that the town either could not, or would not, support a daily paper. It takes money and a considerable amount of it to run a daily paper.

Although the papers of Ada will be the only interests affected by free delivery, and its installation will cost the News quite a sum every year in the way of postage on papers that would otherwise be passed free of charge, we have not allowed that consideration to stand in the way of our advocacy of the great convenience, because being interested in the welfare of the entire town, we do not object to a little additional expense when the city as a whole is benefited.

Texas democrats are going to have some fun in nominating a man to succeed Bailey in the United States senate. From this distance, however, it looks like Morris Sheppard will be a might hard man to beat.

A meeting consisting for the most part of negroes, was held in New York a few days ago, to discuss the lynching problem. It was agreed that a fund of $1,000,000 should be raised to enable the leaders to make a thorough investigation of the subject. The sum of $400 was at once subscribed. The question is a very simple one, when the negroes can be made to see the necessity of proper behavior, there will be no more lynchings. Until then every negro who molests a white woman will be swung up. Nothing complex enough about the matter to need the expenditure of any money whatever in studying.

Four of the Kansas men who are on trial charged with stripping a popular young lady school teacher and pouring a bucket of tar over her body, have entered pleas of guilty. Although the law will not permit the judge to hang the whole crew as they richly deserve, it is to be hoped that he will give them all the statutes will permit. When men lose all sense of decency and respect for womanhood, they have reached a level where brute force is the only argument they can understand.

Up in Kansas they are trying several toughs, who pose as decent citizens, for the offense of stripping and tarring a popular young lady who had excited the jealousy of some of the less favored women. If that had happened in Oklahoma, there would be no defendants left to try. The whole push would have been given their just dues a long time ago and business with the undertaker would have been brisk.

Oklahoma City papers say that a move is on foot to build a new railroad from that place to Galveston. If it materializes, Ada should go after the line, for our city would not be far from a direct route, and could use the road to excellent advantage. The more the better.

The News would like to see the Chamber of Commerce take up the matter of securing a branch of the M. O. & G. for Ada. The road is preparing to do some extensive building in other sections, and while it has a full treasury, Ada should not lose sight of an opportunity that may not present itself again soon.

Although it is universally admitted that the habits which decide a man's destiny are formed in early youth, eight years as a trainer of "young idea" thoroughly convinces us that it is deuce of a job to make the young hopefuls realize the fact and get down to business. Somehow it seems to delight the average youngster to think he is spiting his teacher or parents by refusing to listen to them and profit by their experience, and in later life, when he finds himself struggling against heavy odds because of his obtuseness in early youth, the man who was one of those smart boys may bemoan his failure in life, but it seldom profits him anything. It is our opinion that the foundation of most failures in life's struggle—if failure can be said to have a foundation—is laid in youth, but although we spent eight years as an instructor of the youth, we frankly admit that we are unable to offer any new remedy or suggestions for improvement. Unless Solomon's suggestion is a good one, we don't presume to have much idea about it.

We are unable to see why bee-keeping would not pay in Oklahoma. As it stands now all the honey we get must be imported and costs the consumer not less than 20 per pound. Bee keeping differs from other pursuits in that the bee boards himself and what his owner gets is all clear profit.

WILL ADA PASS IT UP?

President Kenefick of the M. O. & G. who has been in France for some time negotiating for funds with which to extend his road, is evidently meeting with success, for he has cabled orders to double the construction crews at once. The question naturally arises is Ada going to make any effort to secure a branch of the road, or will she pass it up and remain content with what she now has? It is a case of now or never.

NOTICE

Since that big sign of the New York Selling Agency has been put up next door to me many people are under the impression it belongs to me, but I want the public to know that I have no connection with Gubin & Barack's business. The people know I have always conducted my business and advertising in a straight forward way.

I. HARRIS.

The Change in Advertising.

All the business men recall a form of advertising that was very prevalent about 10 to 20 years ago.

The idea was to fool a reader against his will to peruse an advertisement. It was assumed that the reader was hostile to all advertising, and that the only way to get him to read it was to perpetrate a fraud. An advertisement would start in like a news article, as if it were some sensational or tragic happening. With more or less ingenuity the reader would be led on to the advice to buy Quackerjack's pills or Cheatham's corsets.

The practical result was to anger the reader at so childish a deception and few goods were sold in that fashion.

The big dry goods merchants were the leaders in modern advertising. They were early with the discovery that the public does not have to be cajoled, teased or defrauded in order to get advertising read. They found, on the contrary that the public was eagerly turning to the advertising to get its questions answered, that the man who did not answer those questions was slighted, and the man who did answer them got the business.

The public does not turn to advertising for wit, humor or monkey-capers. It simply asks a merchant to tell them about some of his most attractive offerings, to describe them so clearly that they can know just about what they are and what they will cost.

You no more need to work off a fraud on your readers to get them to read that kind of advertising, than the editor needs to play fool tricks on them to get them to read any other good live news.

The department store men have built up their great business by recognizing that the public wants the news of their stores, and is governed in its purchases by the presentation of that news in the advertising. They found out that the store that does not advertise is as much out of the game as the newspaper that should print articles out of the encyclopedia on its first page.—Rutland (Vt.) News.

KEEPER OF LIME ROCK LIGHT

A Woman Who Had a Record of Fifty Years of Heroism.

From the Outlook.
Last week at Lime Rock lighthouse in Narragansett Bay, there died Ida Lewis Wilson, better known as Ida Lewis. Over half a century ago looking from the same lighthouse, a fifteen-year-old girl saw a rowboat capsized. She ran to the lifeboat, cast it off, and rowed to the spot where some young men were struggling, nearly spent, in the high waves. Somehow she got them aboard, and rowed them to Lime Rock. She knew how to handle a lifeboat for her father, Hosea Lewis, the keeper of the light, was crippled by rheumatism and as a child Ida was called upon to help her father in regulating the light and in performing many other duties. When she was eighteen, her father died, but so capable had she become that she was allowed to continue in the care of the light until her father's successor could be appointed. She was finally made keeper of the light by special act of congress. Every night for more than 50 years she tended that light. Her record for bravery was continuous. For instance, in 1866, on one of the coldest winter days, a man who had set out from Newport in a light skiff was overcome with cold, and would have perished if Miss Lewis, at the risk of her own life, had not gone to his rescue. A year later, a soldier belonging to the fort Adams garrison was thrown by the force of the waves into the water while trying to cross the harbor in a small boat. Miss Lewis picked him up, and, as she was not strong enough to lift him into the boat, towed him to the lighthouse, keeping his head out of water. Later, in the face of a terrible gale, she rescued two men who were crossing the harbor with a boat-load of sheep. She first took the men ashore, and then returned to save the sheep. In 1869 she saved two soldiers stationed at Fort Adams, who were on their way from Newport to the fort their boat had been capsized, and they were clinging to its keel. Some years later, a boat containing three men were overturned in a gale, and Ida Lewis, alone in her little boat, dragged them from the water. A short time after she saw a man clinging to a spindle a mile and a half from the lighthouse; she went to him and got him safely ashore. Still later she rescued two soldiers who had tried to cross on the ice from Newport to Fort Adams; as the ice was very unsafe, the heroine nearly lost her own life. The last Ida Lewis exploit occurred in 1904, when she was more than sixty-five years old. A woman had started for Lime Rock light in a small boat. As the boat was nearing the pier the woman imprudently rose, lost her balance, and fell overboard. In an instant Ida Lewis was alongside. She assisted the struggling woman into her own boat, and then picked up the other boat, now drifting away. When one considers such a list of heroic deeds, it is no wonder that the citizens of Newport, forty-two years ago, gave a new lifeboat, "The Rescue" to Ida Lewis, and that she has been the recipient of many medals and crosses also of the thanks of congress itself. The story of such a life illumines the government service, about which too little is heard, and her name adds one more to the list of doers of brave deeds.

A WARRANTY DEED IS A SNARE: A DELUSION! It often conveys absolutely a bad title. Your lawyer will tell you so. It is not a present help in time of trouble.

REASON: Should your title be unmarketable and you want to perfect it by hunting up old deeds, procuring releases: court decrees—every step will be at your expense—even though you find it impossible to sell the land or obtain a loan without taking such step.

ADVERSE CLAIMS: An adverse claim is asserted; suit is brought against you, finally you are ousted from the premises.

RESULT: You go on your venditor. MAKE GOOD his WARRANTY if you can find him.

JUDGMENT: The law will give you only a money judgment. COLLECT IF YOU CAN. No lawyer's fees—nothing for entranced value of land—merely what you paid him and interest—about 6 per cent.

INDEED! Warranty deed sows the seed you reap two law suits for your money and brain and the land is lost at last.

LAWSUIT: Placing your confidence in the man, upon his WARRANTY DEED is simply bidding for a law suit.

REMEDY: An abstract of title shows you exactly "WHERE YOU ARE AT." What you have for a title. We can protect you and help you.

And something worse if you get hold of bad coal. It is certainly exasperating to be imposed upon. An oath is almost justifiable under such circumstances. But a much more sensible way would be to trade with a reliable concern and then you could always depend upon getting just what you pay for. Some people, even some coal dealers, do not know the difference between coal weight and coal value. You buy Heat from us.

Remember if you get 1500 lbs. of lump coal and 500 lbs. of slack for a ton you have really only 1500 lbs. of coal as the slack is worthless to you. We would not let you have slack if you wanted it as we need it for our boilers, so be sure and get our price before you buy.

YOUNG MAN BECOMES VIOLENTLY INSANE

This afternoon Otha Babcock, a young man of perhaps 23 years, was adjudged insane and taken to the hospital at Norman. The young man was in town Saturday and to all appearances was in his usual health. He reached his home a few miles from Ada about midnight and Sunday complained of a severe pain in his head. Since then he has grown worse until Thursday when he became violent. He broke away from all restraint and tore through a barbed wire fence and he ran from home. He was finally caught and taken back and today it was found necessary to summon the help of the officers. He was brought to the court house, where owing to the violence of his actions it was necessary to handcuff him and also chain his feet. He was a most pitiable object as he struggled, seemingly oblivious to all about him.

ALABAMA GOVERNOR OPPOSES REFORMS

New York, Nov. 16.—Gov. Emmet O'Neal of Alabama, in an address at the annual banquet of the New York Chamber of Commerce here tonight, paid high tribute to the representative form of government as it exists in the United States, and made a plea for the safeguarding of the people's interests in the interpretation of the common law by the courts. The address was chiefly, however, an attack upon "the initiative, referendum and the recall theories of government." The speaker emphasized the stability of the two executive branches comprehended in our form of government and declared if the representatives chosen by the people were not capable of serving their best interests, he did not want to be governed by the people, who were incapable of selecting men to make laws wisely and interpret them fairly.

"That the voice of the people is too far away to be heard was denied when the speaker declared: 'Whenever the people are aroused and demand a just relief, legislatures are willing to hear and ready to obey.'

"It is not through direct legislation but in the aroused public conscience, the growth of a stronger sense of civic duty, a more diligent and watchful interest by the people over their own affairs that we must rest our ultimate hope of permanent political reform. The forces of reform are too often short lived, while the evil influences they may overcome generally arise from defeat with renewed vigor.

The basis upon which Gov. O'Neal would deny the people direct legislative power, he established as follows:

"It is a sound governmental principle that political power should always be accompanied with responsibility located and identified. Where responsibility can not be placed, it does not exist and an irresponsible power in government can not but lead to oppression and the loss of liberty."

Some Horse Dentistry.

Spokane, Wash., Nov. 17.—Blanche, a pacing mare, which won more than $10,000 in purses and stakes for its owner, M. Childs of Spokane, during the season of 1911, soon will go under the care of a local dentist, who is constructing a bridge with three teeth for the animal's power jaw. Blanche spilled its rider at the races in connection with the state fair at North Yakima last August, and when a well-meaning mounted policeman tried to stop the runaway the mare leaped over the low fence and toppled over an embankment, knocking out three of its lower teeth. The accident deprived the mare of grazing in the long grass, so Childs engaged a dentist to span the gap with a bridge. Blanche is now campaigning in the south.

BIG GUNS FOR THE BATTLESHIP OKLAHOMA

Washington, Nov. 16.—Three 14-inch guns will appear in each of the two turrets on the giant battleships Oklahoma and Nevada, bids for the construction of which are to be received by the Navy Department next month.

No ship now afloat has more than two big guns in a turret, and while Italy and Russia are building several vessels with this feature, they will use 12-inch guns.

It is explained that the primary purpose of concentrating guns in fewer turrets is to reduce tonnage. On the Oklahoma and Nevada the weight of one great turret will be eliminated as with the new arrangement only four turrets will be required for the main turrets of ten 14-inch rifles. The New York and Texas now under construction and which, when commissioned, will be the only craft in the world with 14-inch main batteries, are designed along the old lines with their big guns placed two in each of five turrets.

With the completion of the New York and Texas the United States will wrest from Great Britain the distinction of having the world's heaviest armaments.
